Headline:
Sunshine and showers, then turning wetter and windy from Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any remaining showers gradually ease through the evening, as they clear eastwards, giving way to a largely dry night. Cloud breaks up leaving some clear spells overnight and turning chilly here. Perhaps the odd foggy spell in western areas. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tuesday:
Showers quickly develop quickly into the morning, heavy and possibly thundery at times. In the evening these ease for most, but look to persist in southern areas. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Further showers Wednesday, though lighter and less frequent. Turning unsettled Thursday morning, with strong winds and rain arriving westwards. Staying wet and windy Friday, with a risk of thunder.
